

THE INTELLIGENCER.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BRIEF MENTION.

Some eyes are very prevalent in Anderson just now.

See the change in the advertisement of Messrs. Sullivan & Mattison.

A special collection will be taken in the Baptist Church, next Sunday morning for State missions.

See advertisement of Mr. R. Y. H. Nance in this issue. He has a word for all those indebted to him.

Messrs. McCully & Taylor bought two hundred and fifty bales of cotton on last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. W. L. Bolt, at the Clerk's office, will receive entries for articles intended for exhibition at the State Fair.

Mr. E. C. Frierson left Anderson on Tuesday for Baltimore to complete his course in the Baltimore Medical College.

Messrs. J. D. Pace and James Ellis, of Hodges, were at the Fair last week with several race horses, and won two quarter horses.

Rev. T. H. Cunningham and wife, who have been spending several months in the up-country, returned to their home in Charleston on Tuesday.

J. L. Tribble, Esq., Clerk of the County Commission, was at it understood by all that he will not attend to business of the Board except on Saturdays.

Messrs. Cunningham & Co. have just received twenty-five one, two and three-horse Avery wagons, among the best made, which they will sell cheap for cash.

Call on C. A. Reed, Agt., and examine his Hats and Clothing, and don't fail to see his elegant sewing machines before you purchase one.

We were pleased to meet in Anderson last week our former townsmen, Captain T. P. Benson. He was looking remarkably well, and is doing a splendid business with his hotel in Spartanburg.

We hope all of our subscribers who are indebted to us will make it convenient to settle as early as possible, as we need the money. If you can't pay all, pay at least a portion of the amount.

Appointments of the Y. M. C. A. for next Sunday: To conduct the afternoon meeting, John W. Todd; Poor House Committee, T. C. Ligon, R. R. Todd; Jail Committee, J. B. Clark, W. R. Keys.

Mr. J. L. Tribble requests us to say to those to whom premiums were awarded at the Fair last week, that they must call on or before November 8 and get them, or they will be forfeited to the Association.

Mrs. J. C. Keys had five pounds of butter of her own making at the Fair last week, and which she sold for a remarkably well when first made. It was preserved by being packed in salt in an air-tight vessel.

The Egyptian cotton on exhibition last week, and which was claimed to be imperious for wool-borne, rust, and all other things, everything else of the kind, turned out to be only a species of the Jamestown weed.

The Executive Committee of Pomona Grange, P. H., will meet on next Saturday, immediately after Sheriff's sales are over. Mr. John B. Watson's store, for the transaction of business pertaining to the order.

Persons holding claims against the County, which have not been presented to the County Commissioners at their special meetings should deposit the same with the Clerk of the Board on or before Saturday next.

Mr. John H. Burns, of the Fork, township, gathered during the past season one hundred and fourteen well grown cucumbers from one vine, which is the best cucumber yield we have ever heard of in this section of our country.

It is fair to say that the New York Cash Store is headquarters for dry goods, shoes and clothing. Strict attention to business, a thorough knowledge of the wants of its thousand customers, and low cash prices are the causes of its great and permanent success.

By appointment of the Saluda Baptist Sunday School, the following officers were elected: W. C. Hudson, E. P. Earle, B. F. Mauldin and L. P. Smith will hold a meeting on Saturday, November 8, in aid of the colored people. Topics of interest to Sunday School workers will be discussed.

Col. L. E. Campbell, of Broadwater township, claims to have the most numerous hens in the State. He says that he went home from Anderson recently and informed them of the decline in price of eggs, and that they immediately reduced the price of their eggs to correspond with the price. He had nine of them at the Fair last week ranging in size from a pea to a guinea egg.

Mrs. P. A. Whitte and her accomplished daughter, Miss Mary, will please accept our thanks for the premium earned peaches and blackberries. They were delightful to the taste, and possessed of a fine flavor, and a remarkable degree. Miss Mary has more articles on exhibition in the household department than any other one person, and received the largest number of premiums.

A call meeting of Mountain Creek sub-Grange will be held at their Hall on next Saturday, at 10 o'clock a. m., at which a committee from Pomona Grange, P. H., will be present to consider some matters of difference existing in said Grange. Members are respectfully requested to attend, and the Pomona Grange committee is expected to be there promptly at the time and place.

MAIN STREET, Greenville, S. C.—The Greenville Agricultural and Mechanical Association, at its annual Fair last week, awarded the premium on Saddlery, Harness and Leather to Vardry McBee, as Columbia, Abbeville, Anderson and Greenville have done in the past. His motto—"Good profits and good goods." When in Greenville call on him.

The very heavy rains of week before last did considerable damage to the corn crops in the Seneca, Tugaloo and Deep Creek bottoms by overflowing those streams. The crops of several farmers are said to be an almost entire loss, as the water stood on them several days, souring the corn and rendering it almost wholly unfit for use. We hope, however, the loss is not as serious as at first it presented.

At a convention of the tax-payers of Savannah Township, held on Saturday, 18th of October inst., the following delegates were chosen to represent said township in the Savannah Valley Railroad Convention to be held in Lowndesville on the 12th of November next, to wit: J. J. Earle, B. A. Davis, Wm. Jones, W. A. Hodges and R. P. Clinckenshaw, Alternates—E. Stowart, A. E. Seidway and J. Aicewine.

We beg leave to tender our apologies to the many people who, in the crowd which thronged our establishment during Fair week, were not properly waited upon, and assure all that with increased assistance we shall now be able to attend to all. Our stock are so numerous that we can afford to sell goods cheaper than ever.

At a convention of the tax-payers of Savannah Township, held on Saturday, 18th of October inst., the following delegates were chosen to represent said township in the Savannah Valley Railroad Convention to be held in Lowndesville on the 12th of November next, to wit: J. J. Earle, B. A. Davis, Wm. Jones, W. A. Hodges and R. P. Clinckenshaw, Alternates—E. Stowart, A. E. Seidway and J. Aicewine.

We are requested to announce that a meeting of the citizens of Varennes township will be held on next Saturday, the first day of November, at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing five delegates to represent the township in the meeting of the stockholders of the Savannah Valley Railroad called to meet at Lowndesville on the 12th of November. It is a matter of great importance to the township to be represented by good and reliable men, and we hope there will be a full attendance at Flat Rock on next Saturday to select them.

The Fifth Avenue Opera Company of New York played the celebrated opera of "Pinafore" in Anderson on last Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, in the Theatre, and were greeted on each occasion with large and appreciative audiences. It was decidedly the most accomplished troupe that has ever visited Anderson, and is such a company as would be received with pleasure by any theatre-going community. The rendition of all the parts was perfect, and those of Dr. Joseph Porter, Little Buttercup, Ralph Rackstraw, Josephine and Dick Dade were very fine. The play is a very amusing one, and the music is very good, and its points with fine effect. Their singing was excellent, and indeed, the whole was fully up to the requirements of a first class opera performance.

Mrs. Scotta Brown, wife of Mr. Samuel Brown, Jr., died at the residence of her husband in the town of Anderson on last Sunday morning after a long and painful illness, from which she suffered greatly, and was confined to her bed for about three years. Mrs. Brown was a daughter of the late Dr. C. L. Galtman of this County, and was a lady of fine education and culture. For her many excellent traits of character she was admired and beloved by her associates and friends. She was patient and resigned in her suffering, and displayed in practice the sincerity of her Christian profession. Her death leaves a family of five children and five children with whose grief the sympathy of a large circle of relatives and friends is joined. Their sorrow is not, however, without consolation, for they realize that death has but called her spirit from a world of sorrow and pain to one of rest and joy forever. Death had no pain for the departed one, but came rather as an angel of rest to relieve her of suffering and grant her entrance into the life beyond. The funeral services were performed in Grace Episcopal Church by Rev. W. H. Hankel of Pendleton, after which the remains were placed to rest in the Baptist Church cemetery.

Col. Brown's War Pony.

Among the attractions at the Fair, and especially to the survivors of McGowan's war, was the mentioned Col. Brown's war pony, which was in all the campaigns of the "Army of Northern Virginia," from the battle of Gaines Mill to the surrender at Appomattox. The pony's history is closely connected with "Bob," his rider, who is also a survivor. Though not so famous as the other horses, she has a more eventful history.

The County Fair.

The Annual Fair of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Fair Association of Anderson County was one of the most successful and very successful, considering the unfavorable start given it by the bad weather. The exhibits, though not so numerous as heretofore, were of excellent quality, and did great credit to the people of this County in the various departments. The needs and fancy work of the household, and the live stock of the field crop departments were well filled by a great variety of exhibits. To particularize exhibits in these several departments would be to make too long a list, where it is difficult to ascertain which was most deserving, and therefore we will content ourselves with ascribing excellence to all of them. The attendance was better this year than it was last, and as a consequence, the Directors announce that, despite the bad weather, there was enough money to pay the money to pay all of the expenses of the exhibition. President Crayton and J. L. Tribble, Esq., the Secretary, have reason to congratulate themselves upon succeeding so well under so many difficulties. Our people ought to patronize the Fair more generally, both by sending articles for exhibition and by giving their own attendance. We hope that the ladies and gentlemen of the County will begin in time to prepare for next year, that the display may be greater, and thereby increase the attractions to the crowd.
